Obligations on Revival

A revived corporation is restored as if it had not been dissolved. Therefore, the public record will show the articles of the revived corporation exactly as they were at the time the corporation was dissolved. Changes made after dissolution will not be reflected.

The following must be filed once the corporation has been revived:

- Any outstanding annual returns for the last two years
- Any change in the registered office address
- Any change in directors

4 - Declaration
I hereby certify that the request for revival is intended for legal purposes, in good faith and in the interest of the applicant.

Note: Misrepresentation constitutes an offence and, on summary conviction, a person is liable to a fine not exceeding $5000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both (subsection 250(1) of the CBCA).

Instructions FORM 15 ARTICLES OF REVIVAL

Filing this application costs $200

You are providing information required by the CBCA. Note that both the CBCA and the Privacy Act allow this information to be disclosed to the public. It will be stored in personal information bank number IC/PPU-049.

Item 1

Articles of Revival must be accompanied by a Nuans Name Search Report dated not more than ninety (90) days prior to the receipt of the articles by Corporations Canada. A Nuans Name Search Report is not required if the corporation has been dissolved for less than 2 years or had a numbered name.

Item 3

Any person with a valid interest in the corporation can apply for a revival. According to subsection 209(6) of the CBCA, the applicant must be an interested person, which includes but is not limited to, the following:

- a) a shareholder, a director, an officer, an employee and a creditor of the dissolved corporation;
- b) a person who has a contractual relationship with the dissolved corporation;
- c) a person who was not a person described in paragraph a) at the time of dissolution, but would be such a person if a certificate of revival is issued; and
- d) a trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator for the dissolved corporation or other body corporate.

Item 4

If the applicant is a corporation, the name must be the name of the corporation, the address must be that of its registered office, and the articles must be signed by a person authorized by the corporation.

Also Include:

- Form 3 - Change of Registered Office Address, if there was a change in the registered office address
- Form 6 - Change Regarding Directors, if there was a change regarding the directors
- A Nuans Name Search Report, if the corporation has been dissolved for more than 2 years. A Nuans Name Search Report is not required if the corporation had a numbered name (for example, 123456 Canada Inc.)
- Fee of $200, payable by credit card (American Express, Visa or Master Card) or by cheque made payable to the Receiver General for Canada
